PARENTS,

The Book of Hebrews tells us that Jesus always did what God said, even when circumstances were difficult. We want to teach our children to obey God, too! We want to teach our children to be like Jesus.

Simple ways to teach your preschooler about Jesus include reading the Bible, singing and hearing stories about Jesus, and praying. Bible teaching can occur during everyday interactions with your child as you model the things God wants us to do to be like His Son, Jesus.

THINGS TO KNOW AND DO

Hebrews 12–13

The Book of Hebrews is about Jesus. The person who wrote this book in the Bible said that Jesus always did what God said, even though sometimes it was hard.

We should try to be like Jesus. We should obey God and show our love to Him and others. Jesus did.

God will help us know what to do. God helped Jesus know what to do.

The writer said, "Be kind and peaceful. Love one another. Be happy with what you have. Praise God. Do what is good."

Jesus did all those things, and we can, too. God will help us.

FAMILY ADVENTURE TURN BIBLE PAGES

Shake a bell to get your baby's attention. Hold a Bible in front of your baby. Say: "Bible. Maryn sees the Bible. God gave us the Bible to help us learn about Him and Jesus. Thank You, God, for the Bible."

Hold your baby's hands and help her gently move and turn Bible pages. Say: "The Bible is special. Some words in the Bible say God will help us."

FAMILY ADVENTURE LACE A JESUS PICTURE

Use a hole punch to make holes around this card. Punch holes about 1 inch from the edge and 1 inch apart. Tie a long bright-colored shoelace through one hole.

Guide your toddler to thread the shoelace around the card. As he works at this task, talk about the picture of Jesus. Tell your child the Bible tells about Jesus. Jesus was good and kind.
