FAMILY BIBLE EXPLORATION

Share these points as you study John and Luke together as a family:

- Betrayed. Jesus was betrayed by one of His own disciples, Judas. For 30 pieces of silver, Judas handed Jesus over to the soldiers. Once He was arrested, Jesus was tried, beaten, and crucified. The religious leaders in Jerusalem did not like Jesus. Once Jesus had been taken into custody, the religious entity that existed had no way to execute Him since it was not in their jurisdiction. The Roman governor, Pilate, had an audience with Jesus and finding no cause to hold him, wanted to release Him to the crowd.
- Sentenced. In an attempt to deflect responsibility from his office, Pilate sent Jesus to the Roman governor from Galilee who was also in Jerusalem for the Passover festival. Finding no fault in Jesus either, the governor sent Jesus back to Pilate, who ultimately succumbed to the will of the people and handed Jesus over to be crucified.
- Crucified. All four Gospel accounts of the crucifixion share a common point when they tell that Jesus died on the cross. The significance of this event is astounding. When Jesus died physically for the sins of people, God tore the curtain in the temple to signify that Christ's death on the cross had made a way for people to come to God without any barriers.
- Raised. Jesus' death and resurrection are the single most important aspects of our faith in Jesus as our Savior. Early on Sunday morning the women came to the tomb looking for His body to complete the preparations for His burial. Finding the stone gone, the women were confronted by two angels who announced gloriously that Jesus was alive!
- Confirmed. Mary Magdalene encountered in the garden a man whom she believed to be the gardener. Luke 24 tells that Mary and other women shared the news with the other disciples who ran to the tomb to confirm this report. Jesus indeed is alive.
