ZECHARIAH TOLD GOOD NEWS

ZECHARIAH 1-14

Zechariah was a prophet—a person who told people about God and what God wanted people to do. God showed Zechariah pictures in his dreams so Zechariah would know what to tell the people.

Zechariah said God wanted people to obey Him. One day God would build a grand new city in Jerusalem for people who loved and worshiped Him.

Zechariah said God planned to send someone to be the king and help the people. Zechariah was talking about Jesus.

FAMILY ADVENTURE VISIT A GROCERY STORE

Take your baby with you to the grocery and visit the produce section. Talk about different colors, sizes, shapes, or flavors of fruits and vegetables.

Hold a fruit or vegetable for your baby to touch. Say: "God takes care of us. God gives us good food to eat. God made all of these fruits and vegetables for us to enjoy. God loves and cares about people."

FAMILY ADVENTURE HIDE & FIND THE BIBLE

Gather several Bibles with different covers. Show each Bible to your toddler and explain: "Each of these Bibles tells about God and Jesus."

Tell your child to close his eyes. Hide the Bibles around the room. Challenge your child to find all the Bibles. Take turns hiding and finding Bibles. Thank God for the Bible and for the good news about Jesus.
