JOHN WROTE TO FRIENDS

2 & 3 JOHN

John wrote two more letters. These were written to people who may not have ever seen or heard Jesus teach. Because John was old now, he probably couldn't visit all the churches that had been started. But these churches and all the people needed to hear about Jesus and know how to live like Him.

In John's second letter he told the people he was glad to hear that they had been following God's commands. "This is God's command," John said. "Walk in love." John told the people to be careful to listen to people who told the truth about Jesus.

John wrote a short letter to his friend Gaius. John wanted Gaius to be strong and do what was right. John had heard from others that Gaius truly loved Jesus and served Him. John was happy to hear this.

John reminded Gaius to do what was good. Obey God and show His love.
